Henry Myers

Henry Myers was the ninth child of a family of eleven children born to Valentine and Catherine Crill Myers.

His father died in 1823 when Henry was 10 years old. Valentine Myers was born in the early 1770's. Henry's mother, Catherine, was born in the 1770's and died in the late 1820's. Their birthplace was in Pennsylvania.

Henry attended subscription schools in Franklyn County, Pa., and at the age of 22, in 1836, married Maria Eshelman.

They came by boat from Pittsburg, Pa., to Fulton County, Illinois in 1848, arriving at Copperas Creek Landing on the Illinois River in April. At that time, their family consisted of five children. Thirteen children, in all, were born to this union.

Henry purchased 80 acres of land and eventually became one of the largest land owners in the area. He helped the boys get a good start at farming, working with primitive machinery, harvesting with the cradle. He made extensive improvements, building a two story brick house, commodious barns, windmills, water tanks, etc. At the time of his death he was able to leave each of his ten living children approximately 160 acres of land.

Maria was a good homemaker, a fine cook, noted for warm hearted hospitality. Henry was straight forward and unpretentious, a thoroughly good man, kind and charitable toward all with unwavering honesty and uncompromising temperance. They were both members of the Dunkard or German Baptist Church.
